

Daily Democrat

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—East side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson

LOUISVILLE, KY.:
THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 21, 1861.
THE UNION MUST BE PRESERVED!"

MUNICIPAL REFORM!
CITIZENS' AND WORKING-MEN'S RATIFICATION MEETING!

SATURDAY, MARCH 23!
AT THE COURT-HOUSE!

Let the Legions Rally!

SPEECHES, MUSIC, ETC.

A meeting will be held as above to ratify the action of the Citizens' and Working-men's Convention, held at Old-Fellows' Hall, on Friday, March 1st. All who are in favor of the preservation of the American Union, on a fair basis, with equal rights to all, and the elevation of good men to office, irrespective of party, are respectfully invited to attend.

BY ORDER OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

REPORT TO THE SOUTHWEST VIA THE MISSISSIPPI.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, speaking of the new tariff, says its effect will be to set the question of the navigation of the Mississippi River—the only one which looks threatening to the South. The Southern men of party conventions last year didn't think of him for President of the United States. Even the seceding convention at Baltimore. Strange that such exalted qualities were overlooked. But there's no accounting for tastes.

NEGRO DANCE BROOKS UP.—Last night, Officers Seay, Martz, and Swinney, broke up a negro ball at the house of one Robert Scott, of Franklin, read out a long list of Vice Presidents, &c. Mr. Scott made a speech, overwhelmed by the honor done him, of course, but he made a good speech. He is for a reconstruction of the Union, and for that purpose something must be done.

He indulged in a little rhetoric about the war being already begun, and the first breeze from the North bringing the first news of resounding victory. All both Lincoln, Seward, &c., would be more startled than Kentucky by such a sound.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

REPORT OF THE RELIEF AND EMPLOYMENT ASSOCIATION.—Mr. William Prather, Vice President, and John H. Heywood, Secretary of this association, publish a report of the proceedings during the past winter, from which we condense the following: Referring to the anticipated winter of suffering and the establishment of the Citizens' Relief Committee, and the subsequent incorporation of it into the Relief and Employment Association, and the co-operation of the St. Vincent Society, the report says:

The money brought in by the treasury during the winter was balanced on hand at the beginning of $32,63, has amounted to $4,818 28, received as follows:

Collected in several wards and sent in by individuals: $275 47
Guitar Association 500 00
Louisville Cadets 3 60
Young Men's Concert 250 00
Washington City Club 200 00
Musical Fund 500 00
Proceeds of Wood given by Wm. Preston Johnson 231 00
Balance from sale of fixtures &c., at deposit 46 75

The expenditures have amounted to $3,617, and have been as follows:

For deposit before the union $725 13
After the union 1,297 63
For col. 1,297 63
For money to distribute 65 75

Deducting expenditures from receipts, we have a balance on hand of $336 61.

The number of orders received and filled at the depot was:

At the West End 5,255
At the West 2,745
Making total of 7,995

The number of bushels of coal distributed is as follows:

Purchased by the Association 10,751
Given by the Friends of the Poor 1,214
Total 12,965

Proceeds of Wood given by Wm. Preston Johnson 231 00

Balance from sale of fixtures &c., at deposit 46 75

The experience of the past winter has but confirmed the noble character hitherto sustained by the people of Louisville for kindness and generosity. They have freely given of their means, of their time, fuel and clothing. And from persons not known in the city have also come generous donations—$60 from an unknown friend in New York, and $100 from E. D. Hobbs, Esq.

The gift by W. Preston Johnson, Esq., of the wood on five acres of land, was very kindly offered, and will give many employment to many persons, which is the true charity, it yielded $230 in money to the Association.

THE COURIER endeavours to provoke sympathy for itself. It would like to be a martyr!—Sain Simeon Styliites—and be persecuted for righteousness' sake, and alleged that somebody has meditated and discussed outrages upon that concern. We have no idea that the notion ever entered the mind of any one, except the apprehensive head of the Court.

It is said that to get rid of the horses for applicants for post offices all over the country, Mr. Lincoln has determined that the appointments of postmasters, with salaries less than $1,000 per annum, will be made upon the recommendations of the members of Congress in the different districts.

RUM OVER.—A few days ago a number of horses belonging to Wm. C. Martin, near Nashville, were upon the track of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and three were run over and killed, and two others were badly injured, by a train of cars.

THEATRE.—We only had a glimpse at Mozart Hall last night, but were gratified to see the large audience present, and to hear the most enthusiastic praise of the Company by those familiar with, and au fait in the German drama. We hope that Mr. Baerstein will perfect an arrangement with the management of the Theatre, as Mozart Hall evidently does not meet up to the demand of its troupe.

GERMAN THEATER.—We only had a glimpse at the regular meeting, held on the 4th inst. Since that time the Association has met with a great loss in the death of its honored President, B. O. Davis.

At a meeting held on the 19th inst., after referring to the untimely demise of the lamented President, the Secretary offered the following resolutions of respect, which were adopted:

Resolved, That in the removal from earth of Benjamin Outram Davis, our late beloved President, we extend our sympathies to his widow and family, and to his friends, and that we fervently implore them, in the name of the Saviour whom he loved, and in obedience to whom he went about doing good, the peace which passeth all understanding, and the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

Resolved, That while we join with this resolution, we deplore the departure of this estimable citizen, we regret the departure of that we were permitted to enjoy his presence and aid, and to see in the daily beauty of his life the power of deepest, purest Christian principle.

Resolved, That we sympathize with the family of the deceased in their bereavement, and that we fervently implore them, in the name of the Saviour whom he loved, and in obedience to whom he went about doing good, the peace which passeth all understanding, and the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

CITY COURT.—J. D. Green was admitted to practice, and William F. Birgman took the final oath of allegiance to the government. George W. Key, stealing a hat from C. W. Bliss; bail required in $200 for three months' good behavior. Samuel Harman, shooting Jerry Flynn; continued until tomorrow. Jos. Gralinger, on a peace warrant by Hester Gralinger; bail in $200 for three months. Mrs. McGill, on a peace warrant by Eliza Gralinger; discharged. Mary McIlroy, on a peace warrant by Dora Betheron; bond of Dennis McIlroy in $200 for six months. Daniel Shay and wife, and Julia McIlroy, cross warrants; own bond of each in $100 for three months. C. D. Dustin, disorderly; bail in $100 to answer to a misdemeanor.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Samuel Haycraft has been selected to fill the post of Corresponding Secretary of the Bible Revision Society. He will enter upon his duties about the first of May.

LETTER FROM FRANKFORT.

FRANKFORT, March 21, 1861.

MESSES HUGHES, HUGHES & CO.: Gentlemen: The Legislature met this morning, but in accordance with the usual custom adjourned, to let the Convention have the use of the Hall. This is a matter of little importance, inasmuch as the body of Legislators were not prepared to do anything themselves.

The Great Southern Convention met. Mr. Macken, Senator, called it to order, and called O. P. Branion to the Chair, temporarily. Then came the committee on permanent organization. The said committee retired, and the Convention adjourned into a state of quiescence.

The Chairman relieved his dignity, sometimes leaning back in his chair. The Secretary, Mr. McChesney, looked quietly around, apparently satisfied with his seat. The Grand Secretary reared back in his seat, and read a newspaper. He got, perhaps, through the last advertisement of patent pills before the Committee came. For a long time nobody was called to speak, nobody offered to speak, and consequently no speech was made. At last a call for Mr. Ewing was made, and Mr. Ewing was waked up. But he didn't want to speak; wanted to hear from outsiders, as he was a member of the Legislature. He said he felt awkward, embarrassed. He represents a county that gave Clay eleven hundred majority, and was an ardent fox for a man to be in, and have to make a sectional, secession speech. He landed Davis and called Lincoln a negro thief. Bad taste for a legislator; but the speech took well.

It is to be regretted that Davis' exalted merits had not been seen before. The Southern men of party conventions last year didn't think of him for President of the United States. Even the seceding convention at Baltimore. Strange that such exalted qualities were overlooked.

But there's no accounting for tastes.

Mr. Scott, of Franklin, read out a long list of Vice Presidents, &c. Mr. Scott made a speech, overwhelmed by the honor done him, of course, but he made a good speech. He is for a reconstruction of the Union, and for that purpose something must be done.

He indulged in a little rhetoric about the war being already begun, and the first breeze from the North bringing the first news of resounding victory. All both Lincoln, Seward, &c., would be more startled than Kentucky by such a sound.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of real estate and furniture at private residences this spring, he will not only have his hands full, but will also be able to supply all those in want of honestests—real estate for speculation, and outfit for housekeeping.

CHARLES DUPRE is a candidate for Captain of the Sixth company of Major Campbell's battalion.

SPENCER, the auctioneer, advertises

this morning a commodious and centrally located house and lot, and a select lot of elegant furniture and housekeeping articles, to be peremptorily sold on Friday morning next. If this is the index to his sales of

Railroad Matters.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

JEFFERSONVILLE RAILROAD.

El. Louis, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Chicago
Daily Express Train, 10 A.M.
Louisville and Eastern Express... 12 P.M.
Cincinnati Train at Seymour with O. & M.
H. J. East and West... 2 P.M.

LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY AND CHICAGO GO RAILROAD.

LEAVE NEW ALBANY.

On and after Wednesday, Dec. 12th, 1862, trains will leave New Albany as follows:

Cincinnati Mail at...

10:15 A.M.

St. Louis Express Train at...

12 P.M.

Through Accommodation at...

2 P.M.

ARRIVE AT NEW ALBANY.

6:00 A.M.

Do at Louisville...

7:00 A.M.

St. Louis and Chicago Mail at...

7:30 A.M.

LOUISVILLE AND LEXINGTON R. R.

Passenger Train No. 1 at...

6:00 A.M.

Passenger Train No. 2 at...

2:30 P.M.

Accommodation Train at...

3 P.M.

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE R. R.

Mail Train No. 1 (Sunday)...

7:00 A.M.

Exhibition Express (Sundays excepted)...

7:00 P.M.

Passenger Accommodation (Sundays excepted)...

2:30 P.M.

Mail Train No. 2 (Sunday)...

7:00 P.M.

Midwest Branch...

7:00 P.M.

SALES GARDEN, FARM SEEDS.

Carter & Buchanan,

DEALERS IN

GARDEN AND GRASS SEEDS

AND MANUFACTURERS OF

Agricultural Implements,

Louisville, Ky.

W. STEPHEN, W. L. F. WARD, M. E. T. AVERY

Pitkin, Wiard & Co.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

SEEDS,

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY,

A. C. T. Manufacturing, Hydraulic Cement, Plaster, &c.

311 MAIN STREET,

Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Avery has a partner in one house, enables to do without a second, and can supply shop prices.

LOT DAVIS

CLOVER, TIMOTHY,

BLUE GRASS,

Robert Gray, R. T. Thompson, Millet Seed and

S. G. Oliver for sale for Pitkin, Wiard & Co.

PITKIN, WIARD & CO.

GARDEN SEEDS.

We have one of the best assortments of Garden Seeds ever offered in the market. Everything warranted fresh and true to name. A liberal discount made on all orders.

Our illustrated Almanac and Catalogue 45c describes everything and tells how to grow.

PITKIN, WIARD & CO.

FLOWER SEEDS.

We offer a large and choice collection, being selected in the article which are best for Garden Culture.

Price per hundred pieces, 8c; per dozen pieces, sent mail or express, 1c; per pound, 10c.

Catalogues sent on application.

PITKIN, WIARD & CO.,

Louisville, Ky.

A large and choice selection of Fresh and Genuine Home-Grown

GARDEN SEEDS,

PUT UP AND SOLD WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

IN Paper and Cloth.

J. B. BONDURANT,

AT HIS

BREED AND AGRICULTURAL WARE-

HOUSE,

534 MAIN ST., NEAR SIXTH.

FIELD AND GRASS SEEDS.

To Farmers and Dealers I offer superior Inventions in these seeds.

Completely answered, and descriptive

catalogues sent on application.

Mr. Bondurant

A LARGE CASH ABATEMENT

FROM RATES CHARGED BY MUTUAL COMPANIES

WILL BE MADE TO THE ASSURED.

HOPE

Fire Insurance Company

OFFICE,

NO. 92 BROADWAY.

NEW YORK.

Cash Capital, $200,000.

INSURES BUILDINGS, MERCHANTS, VESSELS

IN PORT AND PERSONAL PROPERTY generally against FIRE, THIEF, DAMAGE by FIRE.

DIRECTORS.

STEPHEN GAMBLENGO, HENRY S. LEVISON,

ROBERT SCHILL,

JAMES A. SANDFORD,

WILLIAM LEMSEN,

HENRY S. REED,

JOHN R. MITCHELL,

STEPHEN HYATT,

ROBERT B. BRITTON,

CHARLES F. FOULKE,

THOMAS W. WILLEY,

JACOB REESE, Pres't.

THOS. GREENLEAF, Secy.

DANFORTH & ROBERTS, AGENTS,

NEWCOMBE'S BUILDING,

CORNER OF BULLITT AND MAIN STREETS,

Entrance on Bullitt Street,

Louisville, Ky.

AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPY.,

No. 322 MAIN STREET, NORTH SIDE.

OPPOSE THE BANK OF LOUISVILLE.

THIS COMPANY IS NOW ORGANIZED, WILL

MAKE INSURANCE ON HALLS OF STEAMBOATS, ON CARGO

BY LAND, WATER, AIR, AND LAND, AND ON BUILDINGS, ETC.

ROBERT ATWOOD, Secretary.

DIRECTORS.

R. J. ADAMS, A. G. Gordon,

R. H. Atkinson,

J. S. Bowles,

David F. Young,

John C. Miller,

Wm. H. Moore,

John T. Moore,

W. C. Hall,

W. H. McPherson, Vice Pres't.

W. H. McPherson, Vice

